ENTERTAINMENT

GRYPHON STAGE

Topsy Turvy is a duo of acrobatic sisters Lily LaBelle and Amanda Renaud. They are an acrobatic, family friendly, comedy show. Their brand of circus shenanigans blends acrobalance with whips, hoops, and various other props.

Brizeus plays medieval bagpipe tunes accompanied by percussion and bouzouki. They link the beautiful and engaging dance tunes of hundreds of years ago to the instrumental folk music of today. EJ Jones plays bagpipes, Rosalind Buda plays bombarde, Al Cofrin on bouzouki and darbuka, Dave Machek on percussion.

Jester Rejects is a family friendly juggling/comedy act by the amazing twin brothers Kent and Kevin Mercer.

Black Lips Bonny Moffatt: Traveler and Storyteller shares tales from her travels as a "facilitator" (which is entirely NOT a code word for highwayman or other type of scoundrel). From the mythologies of Greece to the histories of England to fantastical stories of dragons and fae, Bonny aims to find the perfect story for her audience, ensnaring younglings and adults alike.

UNICORN STAGE

Bardmageddon is a three-person ensemble based out of Minnesota that performs a variety of period Western European folk tunes from the middle ages and the Renaissance. Made up of three traveling bards they utilize violin, guitar, bodhran, and vocals to create great music.

Bob the Incredible Juggler brings award winning juggling, audience antics and family humor! His routine includes freestanding ladder, rolling globe, Russian cube, Chinese yoyos, hula hoop and many other unique skill sets. Always engaging the audience with verbal humor or by bringing them up on stage!

Tullamore is one of the Heartland's premiere Celtic bands. Fueled by Rachel Gaither's stellar vocals and hot fiddling, Mary Hanover's beautiful singing and inspired dulcimer-play, Michael Coakley's soaring tenor voice and tasty accordion stylings, and Mark Clavey's creative savvy and passion for folk and Celtic music, Tullamore's sound is unmistakable - an American-folk body with a traditional Celtic soul. This year is their Farewell Tour and your last opportunity to enjoy their magical music at the Medieval Fair of Norman.

CAMELOT STAGE

Human Chess Game will be a 32-person scripted performance with staged combat by the Arthurian Order of Avalon. Queen Morgause is determined to see her eldest son, Sir Gawain, wed by the end of the Fair. She's even brought along a priest and a variety of young ladies she's 'encouraged' to be there to speed the process along. Can she force King Arthur to agree to her plans to see Gawain wed?

Marvelous Matt is family-friendly, audience interactive show that offers standards of magic performed with a historic twist plus some effects designed to surprise and confuse. Matt's signature effects include a strait jacket escape and an audience acupuncture illusion.

Raptors Keep is a federally permitted and insured Raptor Education and Conservation demonstration program owned and operated out of Guthrie OK. The performance covers the roots of falconry, from a way to feed the family, through the "sport of kings" usage of falcons in organized hunts to the sport as it exists today. Additionally, they talk about rescue and rehabilitation of the birds, conservation, and the dangers of poisons to wildlife.

The Unicycling Unicorn is a Jester riding a 12-foot unicorn unicycle, juggling fire, and talking with a Fargo accent. For the finale, this world champion unicyclist will be on top of one of the tallest unicycles in the world juggling a club, torch, and a knife!

JOUSTING FIELD

Ascension Aerial Arts was established by Jessica Rae Stone and is now the lovely duo Legasi and Leonora. It combines belly dancing with aerial arts. There will be dynamic and engaging music, audience participation in belly dance, pull-ups, and freestyle aerial and belly dance. This is a creative and athletic artform that focuses on flexibility, strength, balance and danced based artistry.

AOA Song & Dance Show is a celebration of both country and courtly dance and music in a fun, educational, and sometimes interactive way! The Arthurian Order of Avalon is a non-profit youth oriented educational and performance organization. The mission of the Arthurian Order of Avalon is to educate its membership and audiences in Medieval and Arthurian Ideals, History, and Culture in order to instill, preserve, and promote the concepts of Chivalry, Courtesy, and Honor.

Joust — The Heroic Knights of Old perform at Renaissance Fairs, Scout camps, horse camps, and schools across the country to bring alive the epic stories of knights in shining armor. They use a theatrical joust approach to create a dynamic and entertaining show with equestrian skill and drama.

The Unpronounceable Irish Band plays a variety of Medieval and Renaissance period instrumental music to soothe the soul, tickle the fancy, and energize the dancing feet of the Royal Court. They perform with the Talents of Avalon at the Joust Field and for their majesties at the Royal Court.

TROUBADOUR STAGE

Triskelion takes pride in being the "unusual Celtic band". Their music encompasses a wide range of songs and tunes from the British Isles, including songs from various periods and different styles.

Black Oak Shillelagh plays traditional Irish and Scottish ballads and songs, jigs and reels and other Celtic tunes for dancing, as well as covers of the modern Irish artists such as Christy Moore. They often throw in a few songs from the sea and from places where the Irish immigrated, and they often take requests. Roger Graham provides vocals/guitar, Rebecca Grotts plays fiddle, and Kevin Fitzgerald plays bodhran and whistle.

Éinini is a musical duo that performs folk songs and stories from across Europe. J Lang is Fergus na mEabhrac, a bard who sings, plays guitar, and hammered dulcimer. Tanya Garling is Winifred the Minstrel, singing and playing recorder, whistle, harp, tambourine, bodhran, and concertina. They will entertain King Edward III and Queen Phillipa and their Royal court only on Saturday afternoon for the enjoyment of all in attendance.

The Merry Sisters and Mayhem — present an eclectic repertoire that features Traditional Celtic, Medieval, Renaissance, Old-time, Mountain, Blues, and Folk with an edgy tribal flair. The 3 incredibly accomplished musicians are related by their love of music and desire to have tons of fun. Kathy Dagg sings and plays an arsenal of stringed instruments. Shanda McDonald plays fiddle, and Gileigh (Mayhem) McDonald's drumming and bass playing pulls everything together.

The Norman Singers is a non-audition choir made up of people from all walks of life in the Norman, Oklahoma area who share the many pleasures of choral music. Their purpose, since their founding in 1979, is to give the people of Norman and surrounding communities an opportunity to learn and perform all types of choral music in entertaining and informative programs. Their vision is a community brought together and enriched by song. They will be on the Troubadour stage only once, Saturday at 2:30 pm.

MERLIN'S STAGE

Deep Fried Sequins Belly Dance Our focus is an eclectic mix of all styles of dance incorporated into crowd pleasing entertainment. Come enjoy some exciting music and dance. They perform frequently at Merlin's stage but only once at the Royal Court on Saturday afternoon.

The McTeggart School of Irish Dance is traditional Irish Step Dancing school that offers instruction from beginner through championship levels. Come enjoy watching their performances as they showcase the graceful Irish soft shoe as well as the rhythmic hard shoe. Along with the adorable beginners to our amazing Champ dancers, the choreography is sure to get everyone's toes tapping. See them Saturday only, 3:15pm at the Merlin's Stage!

Justin Hall entertains with ballads, songs, and tunes from the Irish, Scottish, and English tradition, as well as Travelers' songs, sea chanties, and more.

Pair of Pirates is a family friendly music and comedy show with a nautical flavor. The 12:15 show will be "A Pirate Adventure", at 2:30 we will have "Captain Jack's School for Young Pirates" and 4:45 is the Pair of Pirates Band, music for young and old.

THE BILGE PUMPS' MUSE STAGE

The Bilge Pumps are a pirate music group based in the Dallas/Ft. Worth area who specialize in performances that combine nautical songs, sea shanties, and Celtic music with a huge dose of silly comedy. Their show is crafted to pull the audience in, encourage them to play along with their high-energy shenanigans, and have them leave with a smile on their face and a story to tell their friends.

A Mirage Dance Company offers elegant, professional, and fun, Middle Eastern Belly Dance and Fire performances. They also include audience participation and make themselves available for photos and interact with the fair goers.

OU Weitzenhoffer College of Fine Arts is with the Dean's Student Advisory Council, and promotes, uplifts, and advocates for students within the College of Fine Arts. They showcase various areas of the fine arts. Such as actors performing stage combat, Medieval and Baroque chamber ensembles and choirs playing and singing, students within the School of Visual Arts doing live printing, throwing pottery, and more.

EznDil is a high energy show of traditional Celtic songs and stories and many dad jokes. Mike and Nancee Micham love to share their knowledge of the Emerald Isle with folks. They invite you to smile and laugh with them during their performance.

ROYAL PAVILLION

Opening Court King Edward III and Queen Phillipa will welcome everyone to the Avalon Fair with much pomp and pageantry at 10:00 am.

Knighting Ceremony is open to all who wish to become a knight or princess of the realm.

Saturday only, a very special princess's CORONATION at 1:00 pm.

End of Parade/Dance with The Unpronounceable Irish Band — The King and Queen will lead the royal court, and everyone who would like to join, in a parade about the grounds, ending back at the pavilion. The Unpronounceable Irish Band plays a variety of Medieval and Renaissance period instrumental music to soothe the soul, tickle the fancy, and energize the dancing feet of the Royal Court. They will play for the court to dance for the entertainment of all.

OTHER ENTERTAINERS TO BE FOUND THROUGHOUT THE FAIR

Saltfork Craftsmen Artist Blacksmith Association will be demonstrating the old way of moving metal to create tools and decorations. See the magic that happens when science meets art.

Merfolk and FoxMoon Productions entertain by interaction in hopes to bring the fantasy of merfolk to life to all of the Medieval Fair's guests. The production is family-oriented with a focus on children and the goal of allowing them to suspend disbelief for the moment required to believe mermaids are real.

Company of the Yeoman Bodyguard provide uniformed guards for the monarchs, medieval encampments, live combat, and even combat lessons.

Athren the Red is a walk around act for hire to insult people. Athren uses Shakespearean insults to interact with the people at the fair. One insult is a dollar, and three insults is two dollars. It is done in good spirit, and they wish everyone to "Have a terrible day!".

Mother Nature is a giant tree-woman walking on stilts. Look for her as she meanders throughout the fair interacting with patrons.

Madrigals & Magic Mirrors: Sheryl Cozad Portraits includes a traveling display of the artist painting scenes of the fair and sketching portraits of fair goers with imaginative medieval additions. Onlookers are encouraged to ask questions and take postcards of images in the series of fair paintings.

The Crew of The Sea Wolf have docked at Wolf's Landing, complete with its dock, trading post, and pirate encampment. The crew tell jokes, fire kid-friendly 'cannons' and allow patrons to have their friends 'captured by pirates' while educating them on the real history of the Golden Age of Piracy.

SCA Embassy The Society for Creative Anachronism is an international organization dedicated to researching and re-creating the arts and skills of pre-17th-century Europe. At their encampment you can see heavy and light combat demonstrations, combat archery, thrown weapons, siege engines, arts & sciences demonstrations, bardic performances, Middle Eastern dancing and drumming, European court dancing, medieval board games, and more.

Medieval Society at UCO A student and alumni organization focused on academic understanding of the Middle Ages. This year's presentation is titled Voices from a Medieval Village: a historical NPC experience. Meet a sniggler, a tanner, beekeeper, a blacksmith's apprentice as well as a lord's daughter, a knight's son, a physician, and a pilgrim as they go about their daily tasks. The characters will demonstrate waddle and daub making, tanning, weaving, and a wide variety of other examples of medieval work. (Based on Newbery Medal winning book Good Masters!
