Medieval Fair

Saturday, April 23

if it rains - April 30

The University of Oklahoma

South Oval

Welcome To The Medieval Fair of Norman

Igniting the spark of curiosity that leads to lifelong learning through educational entertainment since 1977.

Public Information

At the center of this program is a map with letter and number coordinates to help you find what you seek. Look for the parentheses after a description to find its coordinates.

FAIR OFFICE (E12)

Information, Security, Lost & Found. Wooden booth near the center of the park.

IN AN EMERGENCY, CALL 911

You are at Reaves Park, 2501 S Jenkins Ave., Norman. You can also give them your map coordinates (such as E12 Office). The onsite responders have copies of the map.

NON-EMERGENCY BUT NEED ASSISTANCE:

There are radios to contact needed personnel at the sound tents of the stages, at the Fair Office, and on various crew waking about the Fair.

T-SHIRT CASTLE

Official Medieval Fair T-shirts are for sale at the Castle at the south end of the park (B20)

Presentations & Demonstrations

Arthurian Order of Avalon (H10)

A non-profit educational and performance organization whose mission is to educate about Medieval and Arthurian ideals, history, and culture in order to instill, preserve, and promote the concepts of chivalry, courtesy, and honor. See the displays and projects created by their membership at the AOA Educational Tent.

Company of the Yeoman Bodyguard (B15)

Living history presentations regarding weaponry and military structure of the Middle Ages. You can even test your own fighting skills against one of the guards.

Saltfork Craftsmen Artist-Blacksmith Association (F9)

A non-profit organization of amateur and professional artists and craftsmen whose purposes are the sharing of knowledge, education and to promote a more general appreciation of the fine craftsmanship everywhere. Discover the science and artistry of blacksmithing at live forges.

UCO Medieval Society (H6)

A student and alumni organization dedicated to exploring the Middle Ages through student created presentations aimed at educating the public. This year's exhibit is Medieval Fortification and Siege and includes trebuchet launches.

Raptors Keep (L11)

Raptors Keep is a federally permitted Raptor Education and Conservation demonstration program. Learn about the history of falconry, current conservation, rescue, rehabilitation and more.

Society for Creative Anachronism, Barony of Namron and Guests (H9)

A world-wide non-profit organization whose purpose is to recreate life in the Middle Ages for the enlightenment and education of others. Medieval and Renaissance style combat, dancing, art and science demonstrations. To learn more, ask a member about joining or visit www.sca.org.
